D.O. No.16-38/2012-EIP(pt.)
23 November 2012

Dear Mr. Goyal

The Indian Telecom Sector has emerged as one of the fastest growing sectors in the economy. With the Second largest Telecom network having more than 900 million subscribers. The growth in this sector is also contributing significantly to the economic growth of the country. It has attracted US$ 12542 million of FDI in the country.

To promote the Indian Telecom sector, the Department of Telecom has been organizing India Telecom series of exhibition and conference for last five years. The earlier event in this series "India Telecom 2011", held in New Delhi from 9th to 11th December 2011, was a huge success and received tremendous response from the industry. The event witnessed a phenomenal response as 42 countries, 235 exhibitors and over 21306 visitors participated in this event.

To continue to promote the opportunities in Indian Telecom sector for boosting our economic growth and attracting further FDI, this year too, we have planned to organize, "India Telecom 2012" with the theme New policy framework: Envisioning the Next Telecom Revolution from 13th to 15th December 2012 at New Delhi. During this event a two day conference is also organized and this year the conference would focus on topics like Leveraging telecom for connecting India, Socio-economic development through Telecom Services, Regulatory Framework to Achieve Policy Objectives, Capitalising on the Vital Catalysts for Next Generation Growth and Driving Digital Services in India.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to Moderate in the session devoted to “SESSION II: Socio-economic development through Telecom Services” at 03.45 PM on 13th December 2012. The proposed programme and event brochure are attached for your perusal. A line in confirmation would be greatly appreciated.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Malay Shrivastava)
